

Money Train

(Male Hip Hop Duo)

Genre: Hip Hop
Location: UK
Age: 20's
Tracks: 1) Come and Get Me
2) Same Ol' Thang
Artist Name: Ernest Coleman
Dwyan Marsh
Copyright:
All Music & Lyrics © 2008 E. Coleman
Websites:
<http://www.moneytrainonline.com/>
<http://www.myspace.com/ILLATEAM>

---

Artist Biography

Money Train is an American hip hop duo based out of the United Kingdom.

The group consists of LA native Caligrafi and Seattle, Washington- born Reese the Ruler (formerly known as Young Gooch). Money Train's musical style is equal parts soul, pop and funk with elements of trip hop and house music and has quite often been compared to the likes of Outkast due to their originality and artistic content.

Their debut album, "Same Track, Different Train" was released online in 2007 (<http://cdbaby.com/cd/moneytrain>). Much of the growth of the group's notoriety in England's growing underground market can be attributed to this body of work. Singles like "Grind Season" and "Star Struck" were crowd favorites in the club circuit.

However, it was the follow-up single and video for "Blades Choppin", which sampled Eurhythmics' commercial breakthrough song 'Sweet Dreams' (Are Made of This) (1983 in music), that expanded the group's exposure past the local scene.

Money Train controlled the stage at clubs like Soultree (Cambridge), Sonic (Norwich) and events such as Poetry N Motion (London), and were invited by 7 time World Champion and current World DMC Champion, DJ @WAR, to debut at Club Innocence (Newmarket).

"Back on Track" is the groups' second album, released in May 2008. This album exhibits more of a futuristic hip hop sound which will further establish the groups within the international market and increase their fan base.

Stand out record's "Bounce" and "Come and Get Me" received great reviews when they were debuted on KISS 106 FM as well as BBC radio Bristol.

The group has opened for Platinum selling rap duo 'Ying Yang Twins'" and Legendary DJ/Producer 'DJ Scratch'. They also headlined the widely recognized Jumpoff TV show hosted by Total Kiss FM's Manny Norte in June 2008.

Currently scheduled to open up go platinum Def Jam artist, 'Chingy' for both of his UK dates.

Money Train's popularity is steadily increasing due to their streak of Live Performances and their new hit single "Same Ol' Thang".

They are now promoting their 5 song demo, which includes:

1. Same Ol' Thang
2. Come and Get Me
3. Breathe
4. Bounce
5. Same Ol' Thang Remix.

