

 Tricky Micky ***

Genre: Hip Hop
Capacity: Unsigned Singer / Songwriter
Location: UK
Ages: 23
Demo Track: 1) You Want Some
Website: <http://www.trickymickyrap.co.uk/>
<http://www.myspace.com/trickymickyrap>
Artist Name: Michael Paini
Copyright: All Lyrics © 2008 Michael Paini
All Music © 2008 Abdul Bello

News Release

The video for Tricky Micky's debut single, "Easy", is now showing on Channel U (Sky 360) after winning the utellus public vote competition with a majority of 31%.

Tricky Micky made it through the regional semi final in the 'Live & Unsigned 2008' for the 'male solo artist' category.

Tricky Micky has made it through the auditions for the 'next urban superstar' competition and is now competing to represent his region in the final.

Artist Biography

Michael discovered his ability to rap at sixteen and started writing hip hop music under the name MC Envy.

As MC Envy, Michael reached the last 10 of The BBC's and Trevor Nelson's 'Urban Music Prize 2003' with his track "White Van Man", and performed on TV.

During 2003 Michael changed his stage name to 'Tricky Micky', ('Micky' comes from Michael and 'Tricky' is an Italian mafia alias for someone who sells dodgy goods).

Towards the end of 2003, after attending a Music Production course in London, Michael teamed up with a producer who hooked him up with some hip hop beats. They launched a partnership that lasted until 2007 and although it produced many tracks, including a remix by Mike Skinner, nothing went to release.

Michael honed his skills in these earlier years and 2007 brought the start of a new, promising partnership with former Big Brovaz producer Mr Skills and also the experience of several gigs.

They are now ready with a new sound for the young generation. With big 'street' beats, sharp witty raps and catchy hooks.

