Profile of Artist:

Music Promotion Media is proud to present Harriette Hale, the most astonishing Female Singer / Songwriter yet to be discovered.

A recent collaboration with Pitt Stop Productions Ltd led to Harriette writing and co-producing her first 12-track album of entirely original material, entitled Beautiful Music.

From this we have selected the three tracks above, although we would highly recommend listening to the entire album.

The tracks are gripping from the outset, firstly by Harriette's musicianship and secondly by her outstanding vocal ability. Her song-writing ability is fantastic and with her capability to perform the tracks beautifully the tracks are enormously catchy and memorable.

Fundamentally, Harriette is a talented singer, songwriter and pianist with huge ambition and incredible dedication to music. Years of musical training and experience in many aspects of the music and entertainment industry have proved to develop and encourage a strong individual.

Academically, Harriette has gained established certificates (ABRSM: Grade 8) for both piano and voice, and is presently studying a BSc/BMus/BA Music degree.

Harriette has also excelled in areas of dancing including ballet, tap, modern, contemporary dance, street jazz and hip-hop. Resulting in a rounded individual with excellent stage presence.

Having performed in venues around the country including the Birmingham Symphony Hall and the London Palladium as well as many other local venues, Harriette has developed her stage presence and ability to communicate with any audience.

Harriette was previously a member of close vocal harmony group called the "Calliphony" and was also the lead singer of local Swingband singing jazz standards.

Presently, Harriette is in production with Chromazone Records recording new material and expanding into new genres, particularly dance and 'clubland' styles.

Lyrics

Can't Stop Thinkin' About You

Darlin' I'm not sleeping
And I'm feeling so tired
I don't mind the dark
I'm just scared to close my eyes

'Cause I see your face
Yeah all I'm seeing is you
And it haunts me
That catch 22

How did I ever lose myself?
When I thought the way
Was the only route to be somebody else?
How do I justify
The loneliness?
The very thought of you
Can't stop thinkin' about you
I can't stop thinkin' about you

So I'm standing
And it passes me by
Like I can't jump on
Like I can't afford the ride

And I'm closing down
But my minds still racing
And I can't decide if I'm running or chasing

I'm losing you
Then tell me who to
Or losing me because of you?

How did I ever lose myself?
When I thought the way
Was the only route to be somebody else?
How do I justify the loneliness?
The very thought of you
Can't stop thinking about you
I can't stop thinking about you

I can't stop thinking about you
I can't stop thinking about you

Goodbye Brown Eyes

When I think of you
I see deepest seas of blue
And the sunlight is your smile
So much, I love you

And when you call my name
Seems to touch my very soul
Like it's only me that matters
And it's only us who know

So tell me what's been going on
You might be leaving
Doesn't mean you're on you own

These words don't work
They just hurt

Goodbye brown eyes
Where's the time gone?
Put my bravest smile on
And everything has changed
Though love still remains
Goodbye brown eyes
I can't stop you leaving
Holding back ain't easy
Pretend that it's ok
Though something inside me breaks

Always remember that you
Mean the world to me
You, are the world to me

So we talk
And you walk
And I can't follow

So goodbye brown eyes
Where's the time gone?
Put my bravest smile on
And everything has changed
Though love still remains
Goodbye brown eyes
I can't stop you leaving
Holding back ain't easy
Pretend that it's ok
Though something inside me breaks

Goodbye brown eyes

Catch Me When I Fall

I don't mean this disrespectful
Don't you know I'm really thankful?
But I gotta leave this time
Everybody has to do
What they really have to do
Like every bird has gotta learn to fly

Say hello
Wave bye bye

Being here it feels so easy
And everything goes on around me
I watch it pass on by me everyday
On reflection it appears
I'm so selfish, insincere
Like I don't appreciate what you have done

But that ain't the case
Now don't get me wrong
No don't listen
Just hear the truth

You've been the best friends to me
And you know me inside out
Please don't make this hard for me
I know you care and need me so
Show your love in letting go
Be there when I need you

Catch me when I fall
Hold me when I'm lonely

Would you catch me when I fall?
Catch me when I fall

In my point of view
I can make this on my own
Be myself, call this place home
When turning back appears to be the easy way
But that was that life and this is mine
And all that I am really tryin'
Is to make this in my own dependant way

Say you'll always be there waiting
Be that special one
I can always depend upon
When there's no one else to call

There's a world that I want to see
Here's a place I call my own
Here's the way that it's going to be
Yeah god knows what is coming to me
Hold on for the ride it's what I'm needing

Catch me when I fall
Hold me when I'm lonely
Say you'll always be there waiting
Be that special one
I can always depend upon
When there's no one else to call
Will you catch me when I fall?

Catch me when I fall
Hold me when I'm lonely
Say you'll always be there waiting
Be that special one
I can always depend upon
When there's no one else to call
Would you catch me when I fall?
Catch me when I fall
